

Ashurst and Colbury Parish Council

Training, Learning and Development Policy

1. Aims and Purposes of the Policy.

Ashurst and Colbury Parish Council believes that to operate successfully as a Parish Council its employees and Councillors should have access to appropriate training, learning and development opportunities and are encouraged to take advantage of those opportunities. This policy sets out the parameters within which employees and Councillors may access available opportunities to enhance and develop their skills and abilities.

2. The Benefits of Training, Learning & Development.

- Training improves the quality of the services and facilities that Ashurst and Colbury Parish Council provides.
- Training ensures that employees and Councillors are aware of new legislation and best practice and are given the tools with which to implement any modifications to Parish Council processes or documentation.
- Training adds value and gives employees and Councillor's confidence in their roles. In offering training the Council shows its fulfilling its aim to be an encouraging, proactive and rewarding organisation to be part of.

3. Training Needs Identification.

All new employees and Councillors will receive a basic induction on the workings of the Parish Council.

Training requirements will be identified through;

- personal identification of need
- discussion during meetings
- discussion during formal and informal evaluations
